CHAMPION / RESERVE

The organisers and property owners will not accept responsibility for accidents, property damage, horse / rider / spectator injury, illness or death whatsoever. Competitors and spectators attend and participate at their own risk. Additionally children must be well supervised and dogs leashed at all times. Organisers reserve the right to request the removal of any dog at any time.

Only current Hoofbeats members are eligible to compete. Membership renewals and applications will not be accepted or processed on the day. Pre-registration and payment essential. Payment on the day will incur an additional $ 15.00 fee.

The organisers reserve the right to change the time or sequence of any event in the program and refuse or cancel any entry without giving reason. No claims shall be made against the organisers by reason of change, refusal or cancellation.

The organisers reserve the right to change or substitute a judge if deemed necessary. No claims shall be made against the organisers by reason of change or substitution.

The judge or steward has the right to order proof of horse height or rider age. Additionally the judge has the right to deny an award if an exhibit or competitor lacks sufficient quality or ability.

The judge's decision is final. If required protests and complaints can be made to the organisers however must be in writing, be accompanied by a non-refundable $ 50.00 fee and be lodged within sixty minutes of the related incident.

Correct riding footwear and ASA riding helmets must be worn at all times when riding, including during exercise and warm-up times. Competitors entered in ridden western events are permitted to wear traditional western hats however ASA riding helmets are preferred.

Traditional competition tack and attire is encouraged however not compulsory. Hoofbeats uniform and regular tack is accepted. Plaiting or banding is encouraged but not mandatory. Relevant EFA regulations apply to the use of whips and spurs in competition.

With the exception of western and sporting events horse and rider combinations must remain in one ring for the duration of the day. Additionally horses must remain in one height category and riders in one age category.

Individual sporting events may be entered in at each competitor's convenience between 12:00 am and 2:00 pm. Group sporting events will commence no later than 2:00 pm.

Where events clash competitors must carefully chose the events in which they wish to compete. Events will not be held up.

Western events are open to all competitors and are not restricted to western breeds, colours or type.

Competitors entered in beginner ring events will be judged at walk and trot only. Canter will not be required.

Competitors entered in transitional ring events will be judged at walk, trot and canter (canter during individual workouts only).

Competitors entered in open ring events will be judged at walk, trot and canter.

Double bridles are not permitted for use by competitors in beginner or transitional ring events whatsoever or by competitors in open ring novice or pleasure events.

English pleasure horses to be ridden in a snaffle bridle and, if deemed appropriate by the judge, single handed.

Competitors are asked to fairly choose the ring and events in which they wish to compete. For this purpose it should be noted that -

Beginner ring events are for competitors with minimal riding ability or severe confidence issues.

Transitional ring events are for competitors with some riding ability, limited competition experience or minor confidence issues.

Open ring events are for competitors with moderate to extensive riding and competition experience.

Coloured horses must be, or able to be, registered with a relevant colour association / society or exhibit specific colouration, markings or traits.

Novice refers to a horse that has not won a first in an individual hack event at an open gymkhana or recognised show.

Intermediate refers to a horse that has not won a first in an individual hack event at a recognised show.

Consolation refers to a competitor or horse that has not been placed during the course of competition.

Champion and reserve champion sashes will be awarded for each height category (pony, galloway and hack) in each ring (beginner, transitional and open).

Champion pony, galloway and hack winners will be eligible to contend for supreme champion in their respective rings.
